

ELECTRONIC MEMORANDUM

TO: Human Resources Directors

FROM: Sam Wilkins

DATE: September 11, 2007

SUBJECT: Update on No Match Letters

On August 31, 2007, a temporary restraining order was issued by a federal judge in California prohibiting the Department of Homeland Security from enforcing new procedures regarding "no match" letters received from the Social Security Administration. Attached is a website link to an article on the judge's ruling. We will keep you apprised of any updates as they occur.
